I AM DOING IT FOR SURVIVAL

Pic's and Story by : Milton Malatse

The young and passionate lady from Stanjie section in Ermelo is born poetry and adviser from the area and she managed to produce her own disc entertainment that she called Dolly News in Joburg, She advices youth and makes jokes in the DVD.

She completed her matric in Tembisa year 2000 but she could not manage to continue with her studies due to the financial inadequate. Thereafter he had to come back home from city of gold hopping that she would get something better from mother land, unfortunately she did not find a better job than to distribute the pamphlet of doctors in the street in order to get money to put bread on the table at the of the day.

She said that her life is stacked and her dream to continue her studies as a public comedian is in pause, the star said that she has grown watching David Kau and had dreams to become the comedian woman especial in Mpumalanga. Indeed South Africa has few comedians to entertain the guests in the events. She appeals to the community to invite to the events so she can show off her talent. She emphasised that they won't regret for inviting to perform.

She also appealed to the government and or any messiah in the province to assist with the sponsorship or bursary to accomplish her dreams.
